EQUINE ACTIVITY STATUTE

State of Arizona

ARIZONA REVISED STATUTES

TITLE 12. COURTS AND CIVIL PROCEEDINGS CHAPTER 5 LIMITATIONS OF ACTIONS. ARTICLE 3. PERSONAL ACTIONS

ARS.S. 12-553 (1994)

s 12-553 Limited liability of equine owners; exception; definitions

- A. An equine owner or agent of an equine owner who regardless of consideration allows another person to take control of an equine is not liable for an injury to or the death of the person if:
1. The person has taken control of the equine from the owner or agent when the injury or death occurs.
 2. The person or the parent or legal guidance of the person if the person is under eighteen years of age has signed a release before taking control of the equine.
 3. The owner or agent has properly installed suitable tack or equipment or the person has personally tacked the equine with tack the person owned, leased, or borrowed. If the person has personally tacked the equine, the person assumes full responsibility for the suitability and condition of the tack.
 4. The owner or agent assigns the person to a suitable equine based on a reasonable interpretation of the person's representation of his skills, health, and experience with the knowledge of equines.
- B. Subsection A does not apply to an equine owner or agent of the equine owner who is grossly negligent or commits willful, wanton, or intentional acts or omissions.
- C. As used in the section:
1. "Equine" means horse, pony, mule, donkey, or ass.
 2. "Release" means a document that a person signs before taking control of an equine from the owner or owner's agent. A signed release acknowledges that a person is aware of the inherent risks associated with equine activities, is willing and able to accept full responsibility for his own safety and welfare; and releases the equine owner or agent from liability unless the equine owner or agent is grossly negligent or commits willful, wanton, or intentional acts or omissions.

I / We give the Sierra Vista Community Hospital and the medical staff permission to administer the necessary treatment for injuries that I / we may incur while participating in the Sierra Vista Riding Club activities. I / We release the Sierra Vista Riding Club from all liability.
